Dear Admiral Taylor:

The participants in the Conference for Business Executives last week were very favorably impressed by their visit to the C.I.A., and many of them commented that it was one of the highlights of the week-long program. They much appreciated the opportunity to meet with you and your staff and felt you were as free and frank in the discussion as is consistent with national security. They found Colonel White's briefing very interesting and informative, and it dispelled any misconceptions they may have had about C.I.A. operations.

Our grateful thanks to you and your staff for your assistance with this group.

Yours sincerely,

Richard B. Simons
